

XXIX CONFERENCE ON VIBRATIONS IN PHYSICAL SYSTEMS

60th anniversary of the conference

14-16 October 2020, Poznan

Poznan University of Technology

ORGANIZED BY

POLISH SOCIETY OF THEORETICAL AND APPLIED MECHANICS
INSTITUTE OF APPLIED MECHANICS OF POZNAŃ UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

SCOPE OF THE CONFERENCE

- mathematical modeling in sound and vibration analysis,
- experimental techniques in sound and vibration engineering,
- wave problems in solid mechanics,
- computational methods in vibration problems,
- modeling and identification of dynamical systems,
- signal processing and analysis,
- vibration and energy problems related to biomechanics,
- dynamics of machinery and diagnostics,
- vibrations and dynamic stability of structural elements, beams, plates, shells.
- flow-induced vibrations, fluid-structure interaction,
- and much more...

PUBLICATIONS

Papers accepted in review process will be published in the Vibrations in Physical Systems.

The journal received 40 points on the list of scientific journals published on July 31, 2019 by the Ministry of Science and Higher Education in Poland.

The journal is indexed in Scopus.

DEADLINES

- 31.01.2020 — mini-symposia proposals
- 10.02.2020 — mini-symposia acceptance
- 14.02.2020 — registration start
- 04.05.2020 — abstract submission
- 15.05.2020 — full paper submission (not mandatory)
- 15.06.2020 — full paper acceptance

	EARLY PAYMENT until July 1, 2020	REGULAR PAYMENT after July 1, but before September 1	LATE PAYMENT after September 1, 2020
Participant	1300 PLN	1400 PLN	1500 PLN
PTMTS	1200 PLN	1300 PLN	1400 PLN
Student	1000 PLN	1100 PLN	1200 PLN
One-day participation	600 PLN	700 PLN	800 PLN
Remote poster	500 PLN	500 PLN	500 PLN

The fee includes: presentation of one talk or poster, the printed copy of the journal issue, lunches, coffee breaks, accompanying events and the other conference costs. Each additional talk or poster presented by participant is charged an additional fee. The registration fee does not include accommodation and personal, travel or medical insurance of any kind. Each participant should ensure to acquire an adequate insurance policy. The bank transfer details can be found at the conference website.
